Latest Quotations in the Portland Produce Markets.

Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

Portland, June 22.—Sugar took an other drop of 10 cents a 100, making 1 cent decline within 24 hours. The refineries of the country give as reason for the decline the abundance of raw sugars, both on the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts, but the real reason is supposed to be the competition of the Hawaiian plantation people with the Western Sugar refinery.

Thursday is usually a lively day in the chicken market, as retailers purchase the bulk of their Saturday stocks on that day. Today, however, proved an exception, and few sales of chickens were made on Front street.

Butter quotation continue weak, and dealers have difficulty in keeping prices of the best brands of fancy creamery up to 2 1/4 cents a pound. No butter is being shipped and stocks have only the local demand to depend on.

Eggs may be considered steady at 19 cents a dozen.

Some Breezy Paragraphs That Tell of Lively Times in Givadam Gulch.

WE understand that Major Cobb is making threats that he will down us at the next local election. The major will doubtless be lynched before the next election occurs.

The Red Front drug store killed another man last week by substituting morphine for quinine, making ten in the last six months. We do not wish to appear over-sensitive in the matter, but it looks to us as if Mr. Pierson should now stand pat on his record.

While we were riding out toward Dog creek on our cayuse last Sunday to survey the beauties of nature four of the Big Six ranchers got after us and run us for three miles before they hauled off. We counted twenty-one

"FOUR OF THE BIG SIX RANCHERS GOT AFTER US." shots fired at us as we rode, but we were untouched. We bear no malice whatever. The cowboy's life is a lonely one, and he should pick up his fun wherever he can.
